*“They shall come back from the land of the enemy...
your children shall come back to their own borders.”
Jeremiah 31:16-17 NKJ*

Dear co-laborers,

Thank you so much for all your notes and birthday cards. Really, I am overwhelmed by the wonderful things you say. You are the best partners that God could send to a ministry.

The LORD has seemed to impress me to pray for your family. Almost every note you write asks prayer for your children, grandchildren, and your family. Today, the Lord has given me a really encouraging Word for you. “All the children are coming home those who have slipped away are going to return to their border.” This scripture should bring joy and an increase of gladness into your heart as you trust in God. The peace in this God-breathed message is meant to bring assurance to distraught parents. God is bringing your family together to fulfill His last day covenant.

As many of you know, a replica of Noah’s Ark is about an hour from here. This portion of Scripture tells us when the ark was finally completed, the Lord spoke to Noah: “...Come into the ark, you and all your household...” Gen. 7:1 When the Israelites were ready to leave Egypt, each family was told to sacrifice ONE lamb for the entire household.

“In the last day, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh, Your sons and your daughters will prophecy, old men shall dream dreams your young men shall see visions.” Joel 2:28 I believe there is a family covenant for our family. When the first Gentile, Cornelius, received the Holy Spirit, “he and his entire household were saved.”

Jesus said that we must, “comfort, comfort ye My people, and this is the kind of programming we are broadcasting. God made an ETERNAL covenant with Israel. We are grafted into that promise and it is for us today.

We will make a special effort to send the names of your family needing prayer to the WAILING WALL. Next month, I will report on how God opened a door for my granddaughter to go to Christians United For Israel. They are training young college-aged students to be active as a student on college campuses.

By the way, we really do need extra help this month to pay our staff in Israel this month. Please pray and know the LORD will bless those who bless Israel.

God bless you.

Margie's Notes From Partners

Jackie, Margie, and staff: God bless you in so many ways. You Know Better Than That

In the story of the prodigal son, the younger son humbled himself and came home to his father because he had hit rock bottom. Out in the mud with the pigs, he took a survey of his life, realizing that the servants in his father's house were living better than his. He knew it was time to come home (Luke 15).

Many people can relate to that rock bottom story and have experienced God's open arms of forgiveness on a grand scale as they come home to Him. Pride can create a substantial barrier when it comes to staying fresh in the presence of God. It happens to the best of us, even those who should know better because we have spent most of our lives walking with Jesus.

There are times when we get busy doing the good things in life and put our spiritual walk on autopilot. We read our Bible and pray, but it is more like a checklist chore than a true refueling of the Holy Spirit. The Bible warns us about having a form of Godliness but denying His power. (2 Timothy 3:5)

Everybody needs a fresh start now and again. Only when we are able to admit our shortcomings and readily turn our hearts back to Jesus will we be a true follower of Christ. Today whether we find ourselves in the pigpen or preaching in front of thousands, let us examine our hearts and really make sure to let Jesus be Our Lord, every day!

Vision For Israel

The Israeli shekel is currently the world's second strongest currency, according to a new report by the German global banking and financial services company, Deutsche Bank. Deutsche Bank's strategic foreign currency analyst Dr. Gautam Kalani reported that during the past 12 months, the shekel has appreciated 6.1% against the currencies of Israel's main trading partners, such as the USA dollar, the British pound, the euro and the yen. GEMS FROM GENEVIEVE...

"Calvary Covers It All"

I was lost, but you know where to find me,
I was hungry, you were bread for my soul.
I was thirsty, and you gave living water
You were my shelter, and I had no place to go.

That's why sometimes I just want to praise you,
Sometimes just to speak your name.
Sometimes I just want to thank you, without asking you for a thing.
Sometimes I just lift my hands to you, then sometimes all I do is cry.
Everything that I have, I owe to you, Lord,
And Calvary's the reason why.

When I think of the love you have given, Lord.
When I think of the price you paid for me,
Then the trials here on earth seem like nothing.
When they are compared to dark Calvary.

That's why sometimes I just want to praise you.
Sometimes just to speak you name
Sometimes I just want to thank you, without asking you for a thing.
Sometimes I lift my hands to you, then sometimes all I do is cry.
Everything that I have, I owe to you, Lord,
And Calvary's the reason why.
